EXPERIENCE
ISRAEL

ELI is the first gap-year program in Israel to offer Jewish youth from around the world an opportunity to enrich their identity and build leadership skills through an ambitious and immersive college-preparatory approach.

Offered through The Lowy International School at Tel Aviv University, the program runs in English and draws on TAU's global reputation in entrepreneurship, research, and leadership, and on Israel's rich Jewish history and present.

 Choose for-credit classes from across five areas of study:

- Contemporary Israel
- Jewish History, Identity, and Heritage
- The Best of Today's Science
- Reading and Writing with the Masters
- The Arab Israeli Conflict

Program duration: 5 or 10 months
