

Promote your OnlyFans account on Dating Apps

We all know or have heard of dating apps; three of the most popular today are Tinder, Badoo, and Lovoo.

For this reason, Hubite created a new guide with all you should know to promote your OnlyFans profile.

These apps have great potential for Adult Creators because users are predisposed to see OnlyFans content such as nudity or pornography.

However, Tinder, Badoo, or other platforms are much more than just dating apps.

Dating apps are trending, and it is expected that by 2022 at least 400 million users will be using them.

If you want to develop and take off as a Content Creator, check out this guide with hacks and secrets about these apps and become the best OF model.

+400 MILLION USERS WOULD USE DATING APPS DURING 2022

1 Why have a profile on Lovoo, Tinder, or Badoo?

Lovoo is a popular worldwide dating app created in 2011 that has significantly grown in recent years.

The platform currently has:

- +13 million users
- 35 thousand people have been matched
- +250 million messages are sent monthly

Tinder is the direct competitor of Lovoo and is the most famous dating app worldwide. The app was created in 2012.

In the last year, has had more than 78 million downloads in the previous year, making it the most downloaded dating app by country in 2022.

The United States has the most app downloads, followed by Brazil, Mexico, Canada, and some Western European countries.

Badoo is the oldest dating app on the market and was created by Russian entrepreneur Andrey Andreev. Being the most popular app in Asia to this day.

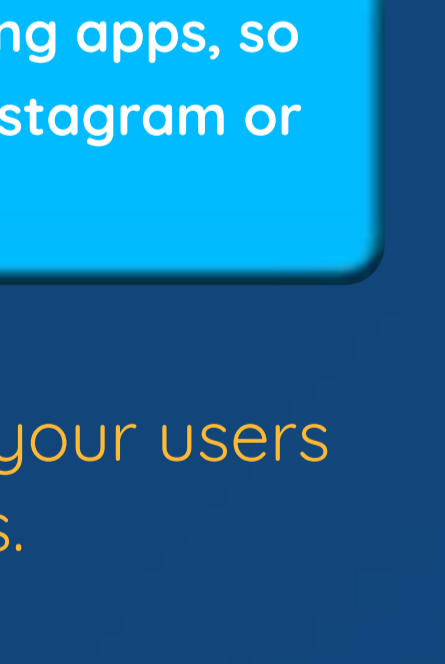

The app is available in more than 190 countries in 47 languages, and users often choose it for its user-friendly navigation over others like Tinder.

Tinder, Lovoo, and Badoo are three of the most popular dating apps, but there are others like: Hot or Hot, Joyride, or Happn with the same features.

2 How to promote OnlyFans on Dating Apps?

First, you should know that these apps work as a funnel to attract users and redirect them to your OnlyFans, just like other social networks such as Reddit and Instagram.

To attract users, you must consider your content; if you understand your audience, you can offer a better range.

Remember that dating apps are not a competition to Onlyfans and will help you engage potential subs.

2.1 What content post on Tinder or other dating apps?

Dating apps usually work the same way: users create their profiles, choose their interests, and the algorithm works by sharing profiles with similar interests to find their match.

To become an OnlyFans model, you must make the algorithm work in your favor to reach users interested in you.

The first step is to understand your audience. You can analyze your OnlyFans subscribers and learn from them. Then you should create your profile on dating apps and keep in mind these points:

A Use good quality photos without showing nudity and share more and more pictures on your profile.

B Add in the description the links to your social networks without mentioning your OnlyFans account.

C Define your interests according to your audience to make it easier to be matched. When you have a match, start a conversation and always try to

D You can't speak about Onlyfans on dating apps, so the first step will be to move users to Instagram or other social networks.

Remember always to be aware of your users and their likes and dislikes.

3 What is the best dating app to promote your OnlyFans?

There is no one answer because it will depend on your users, the country they are in, the content you want to promote, and your goals as a Content Creator.

From Hubite, we recommend using the most used apps such as Tinder and those with the most users in the geographical area where your followers are.

And now... it's your turn!

At Hubite we know what we are talking about. We are the NUMBER 1 Search Engine for OnlyFans profiles and that's why we have 2 millions unique users per month on our site looking for new accounts to follow.

And this knowledge comes not only from analyzing how users behave on Hubite, but also from the long-term relationship we establish with all Content Creators who decide to use our Search Engine as their main source of traffic!
